EXPERIENCE

Freelance Full-Stack Web Developer

Independent | Seattle, Washington | 2025 - Present

- Build responsive websites for small-business owners and independent professionals with reusable components and working inquiry flows.
- Develop frontend and backend features with Next.js, React, TypeScript, Node.js, APIs, relational data, and third-party integrations.
- Build AI-assisted systems for research, content drafting, and repeatable business workflows.

Software Engineer

IHealth and Wellness Foundation | Remote | Aug 2023 - Jul 2026 | HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Git, Figma

- Developed and maintained frontend updates across a multi-page website using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript.
- Resolved responsive layout and interaction issues, refactored existing code, and validated fixes across desktop and mobile screen sizes.
- Coordinated implementation changes and testing with team members through Git and Figma.

PROJECTS

AI Studio

Full-Stack Developer | Next.js, TypeScript, Cloudflare Workers, D1, Drizzle ORM | github.com/AmalEN20/amal-ai-studio

- Engineered a full-stack application with resumable jobs, deduplication, and deterministic fallbacks across long-running workflows.
- Built persistent research, public-website inspection, evidence-backed audits, and AI-assisted drafting on Cloudflare Workers, D1, and Drizzle ORM.
- Implemented owner authentication and authorization, approval-gated external actions, database-backed AI cost controls, and regression tests for critical workflows.

EVELE STUDIO

Frontend and Motion Developer | Next.js, React, TypeScript | evele.studio | Private source

- Engineered scroll-linked motion, page transitions, and accessible content fallbacks with dedicated mobile and reduced-motion behavior.
- Built a responsive studio website with reusable interface components, clear service communication, and a working inquiry path.
- Integrated responsive navigation, focus and overflow handling, cross-device QA, and production-build validation.
